My experience

- Consultant in press, media and public relations advising FTSE 100 companies
- Specialist in the planning sector, able to support Young Liberals in our pro-housebuilding campaigns
- Worked for the Liberal Democrats in the European Parliament in Brussels
- Parliamentary Candidate at the 2024 General Election where we increased our share of the vote for the first time since 2010
- With years working sectors such as retail and social care, I understand issues facing our generation with unstable, zero hours work

What I offer

I make a living helping large organisations get their message across effectively and getting homes built, solving the housing crisis.

These are areas I'd love to help Young Liberals on. They make a real difference to people every day.

The role of an HVP is to offer sound advice when needed. Having advised and supported parliamentarians, multi-billion pound companies and run my own campaigns, I return to YL with the experience needed to support it as an HVP.

Between 2017 and 2020, I was active in Young Liberals as Campaigns Officer and then Vice Chair.
