Plan for Policy: DIVERSITY, DIVERSITY, DIVERSITY

Having been Policy Officer for the last year, there is one issue I have noted above others, and this is the one issue I will focus on if re-elected as your Policy Officer: Diversity.

Whether you want to propose a motion at Young Liberals Conference, or chair and aide a session. Whether you are a first timer, from an underrepresented community in politics, or simply never felt comfortable being involved in policy.

Federal Conference, Autumn 24 Scrapping the Two Child Benefit Cap Reforming Sunday Trading Laws

Liberal Democrat 2024 Manifesto 380k housing target on manifesto 9-7 vote in favour

Federal Policy Committee Elected as a member of the Policy Review Working Group

Young Liberals Conferences Two strong Conferences delivered Strong understanding to improve

Talking Policy to Politicos

Action 1

Actively Reaching Out I will use GDPR-compliant data from previous conferences and events to reach out to people from underrepresented communities, and support them directly with involvement in Policy

Action 2

Young Liberals Dictionary I will create a Dictionary of key terms to make Conference more inclusive, and ensure that members understand the different actions that can and do occur at Conference

Action 3

Work with Diversity Groups I will make sure to learn from those with lived experiences and expert advice, including YL's own Diversity Office, and Diversity Groups in the Liberal Democrats, to ensure my work is effective

Record of Action and a Committed Campaigner

No matter your background, No matter your ambitions: My next year as Policy Officer will be entirely devoted to ensuring Policy brings together the full diversity of Young Liberals, and be devoted to making Young Liberals Policy inclusive for all!
