

A purple banner with a white shadow with the words 'Re-Elect Rowan Fitton & Tom Jordan for International Officer'

A picture of Rowan, a brown-haired white man in a navy suit, speaking to a crowd.

In the 3 months since our by-election win, we have already achieved a lot as your International Officers. From building bridges with partners across the world to representing YL within the party, Rowan and Tom are the candidates with a track record of delivery!

Having kicked off our term representing YL at the annual congress of one of our key partners in Sweden, we have since organised multiple events with global partners, prepared 3 international delegations, & helped change party policy around youth mobility in Europe.

A picture of Tom, a brown-haired white man smiling in a purple shirt, counting votes.

Continuing our Support for New Delegates

We are fostering an inclusive culture for newcomers, as reflected by our next delegations to LYMEC & IFLRY. If we are re-elected, we will continue to offer hands-on support for people interested in international.

More Domestic & Online International Events

We have been clear from the start, one of the best ways to make our international work more inclusive is to make more events that are accessible to the wider membership. If re-elected, we will continue hosting engaging online events & work to host in-person events in the UK.

A Plan for Sustaining YL's International Work

One of the biggest challenges we will have will be ensuring that YL's work is both financial and structurally sustainable. If re-elected, we will work with the wider executive to bring in more revenue to support our work. We will also review the international structure to ensure we are more effective long-term.

A purple banner with a white shadow with the words 'A Strong Record Strong Ambition'

The words 'Re-Elect Rowan & Tom' over a lilac grey background in a square purple border, with a white shadow.