

Re-Elect

Leo Dempster as Chair of the Scottish Young Liberals

Over the last 18 months I have facilitated the reconstruction of the Scottish young liberals, I have built a small core team of members who are willing and engaged and I have a strong relationship with the Scottish Party executive who are committed to working with SYL in the future.

if I am elected I will,

Endeavour to Continue the growth of SYL

continue to grow and strengthen our role within the Scottish party

And Further engage university societies alongside local branches.
