

Cian Tynan for North East Chair

1. Taking the fight to Reform Reform are now a major force in North East Politics, and with local elections in Tyneside, we must continue to campaign for our liberal values and liberal candidates

2. A focus on rural areas-Large swathes of the North East are rural, and yet most our time is spent focusing on issues in more urban areas. I hope to bring a more rural focus

3. encourage involvement in local parties The best way to get involved in the Liberal Democrats is through local parties, and we need a strong YL presence. I will encourage all to get involved in their local parties

About me:

I am 16, and live in the wonderful Durham Dales. Outside of politics, my passions are in transport, history, and often all three at the same time!
