

JOHAN PRINSLOO

For London YL Chair

(A photo of Johan Prinsloo)

What I have already done:

(A photo of me at London Lib Dems conference 2024, speaking on my youth transport motion)

2025-27 YL Representative on London Regional Policy and Conference committees

This past year as I have been championing YL in the London Regional Committees, with particular achievements on the Policy Committee. I have co-founded a policy workstream on Youth Violence and Knife Crime, while also am partaking in providing the youth perspective to critiquing the London Growth Plan released by the Mayor.

2025 London YL Membership Engagement Officer /Vice-Chair

This past year on the Exec I have been an active member in all decisions. I have constantly stepped in to help with minute taking and my efforts have been recognised in me being chosen as the new London YL Vice-Chair this past month when the incumbent resigned.

Strong advocate for Policy around London

I have lived in London for my entire YL life. I have been an advocate for YL Policies at London Regional Conference, in 2024 unanimously passing a policy on enhancing Transport for Young People. This has joined my wider efforts, completing a TV interview on the Votes at 16 policy which shows my ability to be a strong ambassador for YL.

I have been a Young Liberal for 3 years and have a particular passion for policy making. I want to help take London on the next step of its journey towards a Lib Dem future, and this starts with the 2026 local elections where we are poised to make strong gains. I want to work towards ensuring YL is at the forefront of those gains and ensure we can take on both Labour and Reform!

(A photo of me speaking on TRT World News on Votes at 16)

What I will do:

Create a coherent Labour-facing strategy for London

- Arrange for YLers to meet with top campaigners in London to exchange experiences
- Support YL candidates standing around London
- Create training sessions on campaigning in Labour-facing wards

Form an exec with a desire to take initiative

- Empower the Executive through more delegation in their areas
- Allow the Executive to pursue their own projects in London
- Ensure the Exec acts as one when needed

Developing University and Local Branches around London

- Support the growing branches of Ealing and Brent
- Better integrate uni societies across London
- Fill in for the absence of a Branch Development Officer

Sam Lindsay, President of KCL Lib Dems

(A photo of Sam Lindsay)

"I'm endorsing Johan to be London YL chair because he has demonstrated throughout the year the abilities and the ambition to be chair. He has constantly gone above his station in representing YL in his roles in Policy and Conference committee, and I am sure he would continue this work and more if he was elected as London YL chair."

David Agyemang , London YL Comms officer

(A photo of David Agyemang)

"I'm endorsing Johan for chair because of his dedication to the Young Liberals, something which I've seen first hand throughout the last year. He's worked tirelessly to ensure that we meet our objectives and be the best exec committee we possibly can. He'll make a great chair and will undoubtedly push our group forwards."

Christina Nowell, Chair of Brent YL Branch

(A photo of Christina Nowell)

“I’m endorsing Johan for chair because of his fabulous work and effort he has put in to help the Young Liberals at every turn. During his time on the executive I have been able to see his hard work and dedication to the London Young Liberals with my own eyes. Johan will be a fantastic chair for the London Young Liberals.”

Will Francis, Chair of Ealing YL Branch

(A photo of Will Francis)

“I’m endorsing Johan for chair because of his dedication to the Young Liberals, something which I’ve seen first hand throughout the last year. He’s worked tirelessly to ensure that we meet our objectives and be the best exec committee we possibly can. He’ll make a great chair and will undoubtedly push our group forwards.”