WHY ME?

Although I am relatively new, I have already attended six conferences, taking part in policy debates, fringe events and the social side, and I am excited to keep that momentum going with YL.

As Vice Chair of the East of England Young Liberals I am currently organising fringe sessions for our regional conference and I hope to continue creating engaging events like the Cambridge fringes.

Having fun at conference

MACK'S PLAN

- ① Work with the membership development and other organisations to host more fringes at conference.
- ② Work with policy committee to make sure that constitutional amendments take up less valuable auditorium time while making sure they are still debated.
- ③ Make sure accessibility is at the core of conference, especially for under 18s.
