

MACKENZIE GREGORY: Your choice for EYL Events Rep

ABOUT THIS MANIFESTO

This is a campaign manifesto page for Mackenzie Gregory's candidacy for Events Representative on the Young Liberals Executive.

The design highlights Mackenzie's name with the slogan "your choice for EYL Events Rep."

The left column explains "WHY ME?": Mackenzie's conference experience, event organising background and commitment to accessibility.

The right column, titled "MACK'S PLAN," sets out three clear action points: more fringes at conference, improving debate time, and putting accessibility at the heart of events.

Photos show Mackenzie attending Young Liberals conferences and helping run engaging fringe sessions.

At the bottom right, there's a campaign badge-style logo with the words "Mackenzie #1 for Events Rep."

WHY ME?

1. Experienced conference-goer

Although I am relatively new, I have already attended six conferences, taking part in policy debates, fringe events and the social side, and I'm excited to keep that momentum going with Young Liberals.

2. Proven event organiser

As Vice Chair of the East of England Young Liberals I am currently organising fringe sessions for our regional conference and have experience creating engaging events like the Cambridge fringes.

3. Committed to accessibility

I want to ensure that Young Liberals events and conferences are welcoming and accessible to everyone, especially under-18s.

MACK'S PLAN

1. Host more engaging fringe sessions

Work with the membership development team and other organisations to bring more exciting fringe events to conference.

2. Improve debate time at conference

Work with the policy committee to make sure constitutional amendments use less valuable auditorium time while ensuring they are still debated.

3. Put accessibility first

Make sure accessibility is at the core of every event and conference, with particular focus on under-18s and first-time attendees.
