

Manifesto for Racial Equity, Diversity and Liberation Officer

Candidate: Akachukwu Ogazi

My name is Akachukwu Ogazi. I am from a Nigerian background and a student of English Language and Linguistics at the University of Wolverhampton. I am running to be your next Racial Equity, Diversity and Liberation Officer in the Young Liberals.

I joined the Liberal movement because I believe in the power of freedom, equality, and the need for every voice to be heard. I have seen how strong our values are, and want to help make them real for every member, no matter their background.

My experience

I bring experience and passion to this role.

- I have volunteered with the local party in Wolverhampton.
- I served as the Honorary President of the local party.
- I am nearing the end of my term as Chairman of the Students' Union Council at the University of Wolverhampton.
- I currently lead the Young Liberals Society at my university.

These roles have taught me how to listen, lead, and stand up for those whose voices often go unheard. I've worked hard to create spaces where everyone feels safe, valued, and respected.

My Vision

As your Racial Equity, Diversity and Liberation Officer, I will:

- Fight for representation. I will work to make sure Young Liberals from all backgrounds are heard and involved.
- Promote inclusion. I will help build a culture where every person feels welcome and empowered.
- Stand for equity. I will push for fair treatment and equal access to opportunities within our party.
- Support liberation. I will listen to your concerns, share your stories, and help break down barriers that hold people back.

Why you should Vote for me

I care deeply about making our party more open, more diverse, and more just. My leadership experience, my background, and my belief in the Liberal values of fairness and freedom make me the right candidate for this role. If elected, I will be a strong voice for inclusion not just in words, but in action. Together, we can create a Young Liberals community that truly reflects all of us.

Vote Akachukwu Ogazi for Racial Equity, Diversity and Liberation Officer.

Thank you.
